

(11) “SUITABLE CONTAINER or ENCLOSED FIRE PIT or RECEPTACLE means an area or container enclosed on all sides made of non-combustible materials that is a minimum of 12” in height or depth. The ground around the receptacle be maintained and kept free of combustibles that could contribute to fire spread. Used for the purpose of leisure campfires and the burning of natural, untreated wood logs not extending beyond container.

Examples of Suitable Containers, Enclosed Fire Pits or Receptacles:

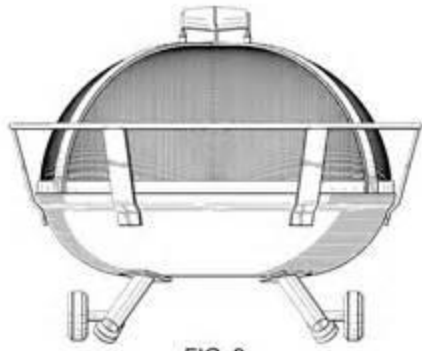

FIG. 3

